Ocean Atlantic Agency Welcomes New Agents

Ocean Atlantic Agency, located at 330 Rehoboth Avenue in downtown Rehoboth welcomes Amy Pietlock, Brad McAninch, Elona Shaffert and Sandy Barker to their experienced team of REALTORS®.

Amy Pietlock, a Wilmington native, has spent over a decade vacationing in Dewey Beach and has since made Dewey Beach her home. Having spent years as a manager for the Starboard Bar and Restaurant, Amy has mastered customer service and looks forward to channeling her customer service and people skills to the her new career as a REALTOR®.

Brad McAninch fell in love with the town of Rehoboth in 1999 after a summer trip to the Delaware Beaches. Shortly after, Brad found himself making a permanent move to Rehoboth in hopes of starting the next chapter of his life. Since the move, Brad has become closely involved with community projects such as Big Brothers Big Sisters, Meals on Wheels, LOVE and Camp Rehoboth. In 2001, Brad's desire and enthusiasm to help others and his interest in real estate led him into a successful real estate career.

Elona Shaffert, a new REALTOR® in the Rehoboth area, likes to say that she ran away to the beach. Elona moved to Rehoboth in 1997 in pursuit of opening her own business, "Creatable Crafts". After 10 successful years as a business owner, Elona decided to pursue her lifelong interests in real estate. Having been personally involved in numerous real estate transactions, Elona is prepared to make her customers' transactions painless.

Sandy Barker of Newark, Delaware, spent years working for the Brandywine School District. She always had the dream and desire to help people buy and sell homes and became a REALTOR® 21 years ago. She has since relocated to Rehoboth and has enjoyed selling people homes and property along the Delaware Coast.

Ocean Atlantic Agency employs 37 highly trained real estate agents experienced in selling, buying, investing, leasing, new development, commercial real estate and mobile home sales.
